

Hazardous Waste Management

Duration 5 Days

Introduction

This course provides an in-depth look at the latest regulatory requirements, waste exemptions and exclusions, new universal waste requirements, VOC standards for hazardous waste generators, and waste minimization

Who Should Attend

Individuals who deal with or manage hazardous waste must have an initial training course BEFORE beginning the duties of their job, as well as recurrent training on an annual basis. Employees who should have the training are: Supervisors, Hazardous Waste Generators, Environmental Compliance Professionals, Employees of Transportation, Storage and Disposal Facilities (TSDF's) and people responsible for the transportation of hazardous waste.

Course Objectives

Upon completion this program Participants will be able to:

- ↳ Understand the latest \ requirements and how to comply.
- ↳ Properly identify, accumulate, minimize, and ship hazardous waste;
- ↳ Develop a contingency plan; and
- ↳ Comply with land disposal restrictions.

Course Outlines:

1. Introduction to solid and hazardous waste management
2. Definition, classification and characteristics of hazardous waste
3. How your state rules differ from federal regulations
4. Generation, avoidance and minimization of hazardous waste
5. Hazardous waste exclusions
6. Transportation of hazardous waste
 - Collection systems
 - Types of transportation
 - Licensing and supervision of HW transportation
7. Pre-treatment and recycling
 - Chemical/physical treatment
 - Solidification, stabilization
 - Others
8. Accumulation point and satellite management
9. Hazardous waste manifesting
10. Land disposal restrictions
11. Universal waste, used oil, CRTs
12. Recordkeeping requirements
13. New and proposed streamlined rules
14. Contingency plans and preparedness and prevention